Health and Safety Representative Training

LEARNING OUTCOMES

OVERVIEW & DUTIES UNDER THE HSAW ACT 2015

- Legal requirements and responsibilities as defined in the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015
- Risk Management processes
- Obligations of a PCBU

WORKER ENGAGEMENT, PARTICIPATION & REPRESENTATION

- Understanding of the powers for a representative and workers under the Act.
- The role of advocacy to workers in relation to health & safety

ROLE & FUNCTIONS OF WORKSAFE NZ & H&S REP

- Risk Management
- Issuing of Provisional Improvement Notices
- Cease work requirements

HEALTH AND SAFETY REPRESENTATIVE

INTENTION

This training course is designed for representatives to be able to demonstrate an understanding of the overall role and functions of a health and safety representatives (HSR's) in the workplace.

The content has been specifically structured to cover the core elements in the role of the HSR in line with new legislative requirements.

DELIVERY

This facilitated 1 day (6 hour) course involves interactive sessions where real life industry incidents and examples are used.

On successful completion of this course learners will be credited with unit standard 29315 (Level 3 Credits 2) The role & functions of the Health & Safety Representative. This course provides a pathway to a full NZ Certificate in Workplace Health & Safety Practice – Level 3

COURSE COSTS

$395 + GST per person (which includes registering the NZQA unit and a certificate of completion)

For further information contact Risk Management Group

RISK MANAGEMENT GROUP Phone 0800 RISKGROUP (747 547) Email kayp@riskgroup.co.nz WWW.RISKGROUP.CO.NZ